EARN TWO DEGREES ON TIME AND ON BUDGET

A.S. in Business Administration at TCC
B.S. in Supply Chain Management at NSU

SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT

Getting the right products to the right place in the right time while doing it in the right way and at the right cost. That's what Supply Chain Management is all about: from moving grain to a cereal maker or toothpaste to your favorite store. Businesses need professionals to handle the logistics - from transportation, inventory management, warehousing, purchasing, information systems and more. And it takes people who know the language of business and accounting and understand the basics of finance, economics, statistics, leadership and marketing. That's where a degree in Supply Chain Management can get you where you want to be.

I would categorize my experience in transferring from TCC to NSU as a seamless transaction. The working relationship between the two schools is excellent and will set you up for a successful career and degree.
